

Ridgewood Trails Community Development District Board of Supervisors Vacancy Announcement

According to the Clay County Supervisor of Elections, no “Qualified Electors” (registered voters living in Ridgewood Trails CDD/Azalea Ridge) filed for candidacy for Supervisor Seat 5 on the Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors will consider candidates for appointment to fill the seat for the four-year term of office expiring November 2020. Persons interested in being considered to fill the vacancy should submit via email a written résumé to the CDD Recording Secretary (ssweeting@gmsnf.com) no later than October 28, 2016. Candidates must be registered voters and residents of Ridgewood Trails CDD. The Board of Supervisors will review résumés and will make a selection by majority vote at the next CDD meeting to be held at the Clay County Public Library (Middleburg Branch) on November 2, 2016 @ 6:00 p.m. Candidates are encouraged to attend the meeting to briefly address the Board and be available (if selected) to be sworn in and participate in the remainder of the meeting.

Community Development Districts are governmental entities and supervisors are public officials subject to Florida Sunshine Amendment and Code of Ethics. Within 30 days of appointment, the new supervisor will be required to file a Statement of Financial Disclosure (Form 1) with the Clay County Supervisor of Elections. To view the form, visit <http://www.ethics.state.fl.us/> (the form is required after appointment, not as part of the application process). For more information regarding the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Supervisors, please consult Chapter 190, Florida Statutes.
